

I support maintaining limits on the number of broadcast media outlets that may be owned by a single corporation. I urge the FCC to extend the public comment period on this matter for an additional three months, and to conduct additional formal public hearings during that period.